

✓ STATE TENNESSEE	COUNTY HAMBLEN  TOWN OR VICINITY (Approx. 5 Mi. N.E. MORRISTOWN-US Hy. 11-E) 5p 4d
INDEX NUMBER TENN. 32-MORTON	MONUMENT DEADRICK FRANK W. TAYLOR HOUSE
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. TENN-97	History: Built before 1812 by Judge Chas. Deadrick.
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	Present Owner: Taylor Estate-C.V. Taylor, Executor, Knoxville, Tenn.
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS	Description: Large 2 story brick with one story "L's" to rear and to right side. Right side "L" not original.
6-8369		2 story entrance porch to front broken at 2nd fl. level to provide 2nd fl. porch. Hipped roofs covered with solid block tin raised seam. HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY ✓

Slave office (Business office for transacting sales of slaves) Slave quarters, barns, smoke house, stables, etc. form elaborate farm group. Approached by 600 ft. tree-box avenue. Delicate and attractive exterior woodwork. Hand made bricks covered with cement plaster. All woodwork mitered and pegged and cut by hand. Reference: None available.

W. Jeter Eason
Aug. 8, 1936